

FIFTEEN BUCKS AN HOUR

to the tune of "Which Side Are You On?" Original lyrics by Florence Reese; new words by Bonnie Lockhart

Come all of you good people, good news to you we give
We're gonna raise up wages so that working folks can live

Fifteen bucks an hour (4X)

The big boxes will fight back, they'll whimper and they'll cry
They'll say they can't afford it, but we know that's just a lie
Fifteen bucks an hour. . .

Hey, listen up McDonalds, if you can't make the grade
Just move out and let locals show how payrolls can be made
Fifteen bucks an hour. . .

While CEOs make millions, the minimum is flat
Now most Americans agree it's time to change all that
Fifteen bucks an hour. . .

Now listen local leaders, 'cause we elected you
It's time to tackle poverty, here's one thing you can do
Fifteen bucks an hour. . .

It's happening all over, we're building people's power
So nationwide the wage will rise to fifteen bucks an hour
Fifteen bucks an hour. . .
