

America, the Beautiful, Revisted - Betsy Rose

Oh beautiful for spacious skies
For amber waves of grain
For purple mountains majesty
Above the fruited plain
America America
God shed Her grace on thee
And crown thy good with humanhood
From sea to shining sea

How sad it is to see our country
Wasting precious lives
Invading nations for their oil
And selling war with lies
America America what's happened to our name
Where once you filled the world with hope
Now hearts are filled with shame

We stand as loyal patriots
Our duty now is plain
When corporations buy the votes
And soldiers die in vain
America America we pledge to keep you free
Restore peace and integrity
