

If You Miss Me

(If You Miss Me at the Back of the Bus)

Words: Dan Howard, Abby Caplin, Ami Goodman

If you miss me in the office today,
And you can't find me nowhere,
Come on down to the Occupy Camp,
I'll be working right there.

I lost a good job at the factory,
How will I pay the rent?
They drove my family from our home,
Now we're living in a tent.

If you miss me paying fees at the bank,
And you can't find me nowhere,
Come on down to the credit union,
My deposits are there.

If you miss me in the board room,
Sporting a suit and tie,
Meet me down at the city square,
That's where we'll occupy.

If you miss me at the university,
And you can't find me nowhere,
Come on down to the police line,
I'm getting educated there.
[Shout:] No pepper spray!

If you miss me at the longshore docks,
And you can't find me nowhere,
Come on down to the picket line
We'll be blocking the pier.

If your wages have been recently cut,
And all your money is spent,
Come on down and protest with us,
We're the ninety-nine percent.
