

He's Beginning to Sound a Lot Like Hitler

Tune: It's Beginning to Look a Lot Like Christmas by Meredith Wilson

New words: Nancy Schimmel

He's beginning to sound a lot like Hitler

Everywhere he goes

He threatens us with the cops, and soldiers from special ops,

And biker guys to bop us on the nose

He's beginning to sound a lot like Hitler

That's his bedside book

Though his scapegoats are not the same he plays a fascist game

Plus he's such a crook,

Some sort of Reichstag fire and a lot of barbed wire

Is the wish of Jared and Pence

And Sean Hannity adds insanity

And the army adds expense

When the tax cuts break for the rich guys' sake, then it all makes sense

He's beginning to sound a lot like Hitler

Every time he tweets

He thinks that he wears a crown, you know we can bring him down,

If he won't resign he'll find us in the streets
