

SITTING DOWN IS HARD TO DO

(Tune: Breaking Up Is Hard to Do by Howard Greenfield & Neil Sedaka, new words by Hali Hammer)

Why can't I sit down, doo be doo down down
Why can't I sit down, doo be doo down down
Why can't I sit down, doo be doo down down
Sitting down is hard to do

Can't pay tuition, or pay my rent
I've been swindled by the 1%
The soles are worn out of my shoes
And sitting's something I can't do

Who thought this up? Don't ask me why
I can't stand for it, that is no lie
Let's get together and stop this rule
Sitting shouldn't be so hard to do

You say that sitting down's not hard to do
How I wish, I wish it were true
I don't have a dollar to spend
If I could just sit down a while
I'd get back on my feet again

The FSM would never be
And Civil Rights might be a fantasy
Look at all that we've been through
With sitting something we could do.

Why can't I sit down, doo be doo down down
Why can't I sit down, doo be doo down down
Why can't I sit down, doo be doo down down
Sitting down is hard to do
