

Some Subversive Evening

(From "North Atlantic" by Paul Jarrico, tweaked by Occupella and the ReSisters)

C G
Some subversive evening - You may find a stranger

C C7 F
You may find a stranger - From the NSA

Dm E Am
Then somehow you know - You know even then

Dm G C
That somewhere you'll see him - Again and again

Some subversive evening - Someone may be listening

You may hear him listening - On the telephone

And night after night - Whatever is said

You'll wonder if someone is under your bed

F C G C
He'll watch what you read and strange as it seems

F C D G
He'll spy on your thoughts - Even on your dreams

Some subversive evening

When you find your G-Man

You may see him watch you - Across a crowded room

Then remember the flag - Oh, say, can you see

Our Constitution declares we are free

F C G C
Who is subversive? Who do you say?

F C Dm F Dm F C
Who is subversive? You or the NSA?
