

WHAT SHALL WE DO WITH A DRUNKEN SAILOR

Stephen Zunes remembered the Exxon Valdez verse from somewhere and Nancy Schimmel wrote the rest.

What shall we do with a drunken sailor? (3x)
Earlie in the morning?

Make him the skipper of the Exxon Valdez (3x)
Earlie in the morning.

What shall we do with the tar sands crude? (3x)
Earlie in the morning?

Put it on a train that runs through Berkeley, (3x)
Earlie in the morning.

What shall we do with the fracking water
Earlie in the morning?

Pump it underground and cause an earthquake
Earlie in the morning.

What shall we do with the toxic coal ash?
Earlie in the morning?

Dam it up and spill it in the river
Earlie in the morning.

What shall we do with the carbon profits
Earlie in the morning?

Buy a yacht and a politician
Earlie in the morning.
